

In what book does the story begin with a funeral?

Page: 1      Title: Everest

In what book does someone climb buildings to train?

Page: 6      Title: Everest

In what book is it common to have a few screws loose?

Page: 16      Title: Everest

In what book does a trainer find new and exciting ways to torture trainees?

Page: 22      Title: Everest

In what book do people go camping in the snow?

Page: 28      Title: Everest

In what book does someone have a billionaire uncle?

Page: 33      Title: Everest

In what book might people be disappointed by post-it notes?

Page: 40      Title: Everest

In what book is there a "death zone?"

Page: 47      Title: Everest

In what book does someone leak information to a newspaper?

Page: 55 Title: Everest

In what book does a character trash a broom closet?

Page: 65 Title: Everest

In what book do kids climb up a “mushroom?”

Page: 70 Title: Everest

In what book does a character keep a medical log?

Page: 77 Title: Everest

In what book is someone sent home to do some growing up?

Page: 86 Title: Everest

In what book is a character in disbelief about making the team?

Page: 87 Title: Everest

In what book does a character complete a dyno?

Page: 96 Title: Everest

In what book do characters use crampons?

Page: 100 Title: Everest

In what book are characters pushed for 11 ½ hours?

Page: 108 Title: Everest

In what book does someone buy their way onto a team?

Page: 112 Title: Everest

In what book does a character compare their own safety with the value of the peanuts in Peru?

Page: 126 Title: Everest

In what book does a character reach for a vial of sand when things seem hopeless?

Page: 131 Title: Everest